

CENTRETOWN IS AT RISK OF LOSING ITS LIBRARY!

Join me and my urban core colleagues for a Central Library Public Open House:

- Date: Wednesday, January 18
- Time: 6pm – 8pm
- Location: Jean Pigott Hall, City Hall, 110 Laurier Ave. West

We want to hear from you!

Did you know?

- Library staff have recommended 557 Wellington St. (west of Bronson) as the site for the new Central Library
- 584,650 people visited the Main library in 2015 = 1670/day
- 81% of current Main library users arrive on foot
- 24% visit from downtown workplaces = 500+/day
- According to Ottawa Public Library staff, if the central Main branch moves, there is no plan for a Centretown branch

You said...priorities for a new Central Library are:

- Accessible for people with disabilities
- On a convenient LRT/bus route
- Walkable
- Needs to be located in the most populated area of the city

What can you do?

- Write to Mayor Watson at jim.watson@ottawa.ca and copy me: catherine.mckenney@ottawa.ca
- Attend the public meeting on Wednesday, January 18th from 6-8pm at City Hall.
